Former GE Employee Launches Independent Manufacturers Sales and Consulting Company, DENISS, LLC in Georgia and signs sales representation agreement

POWDER SPRINGS— March 31, 2017 — Retired General Electric Company employee, Tyrone DeNeal, Sr., announced that his premiere company, DeNeal Industrial Sales & Services, LLC (DENISS, LLC) has signed a sales representation agreement with East West Manufacturing, a global manufacturing services company based in Atlanta, GA. East West assist companies in becoming more competitive by producing their components or assemblies to high quality standards in countries where it is most strategically advantageous.

East West Manufacturing specializes in the following products:

- Engineered Products
- Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS)
- Electric Motors, fans, blowers and pumps (air/water moving systems)
- Medical products (Class II)

DeNeal, who founded DENISS, LLC in November, worked in sales and marketing for 43 years at General Electric, specializing in sales and marketing of electrical distribution, industrial automation and industrial drive equipment. DeNeal said DENISS, LLC's mission is to "help our principals and customers to grow sales and improve profits by utilizing the Six Sigma principles – Define, Measure, Analyze, Implement and Control." He added that DENISS, LLC's target in the multimillion-dollar electrical equipment and components services market segment will include engineered products, electronic manufacturing services, medical products, motors, blowers and heating, ventilation, air conditioning and refrigeration components.
